Driving High Performance for Chronic Disease Management Teams

DATE: Wednesday, September 13, 2017

TIME: 3:00 - 4:30 PM ET

PARTICIPANT DIAL-IN NUMBER: 855-339-4595

WEBEX: <https://qualitynet.webex.com>

AUDIENCE: Open to QIN-QIOs, providers, and partners

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED! Register here.

On this call, you'll hear how Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organizations (QIN-QIOs) and healthcare providers in low-resource practices are leveraging standardized protocols, electronic health records, and community health workers (CHWs) to better manage high blood pressure and other chronic conditions. We'll also explore options for CHW recognition, compensation, and professional development, and we'll share resources from the CMS Office of Minority Health to improve the accessibility of chronic care management services. Please come prepared to ask questions, offer insights, or share your experience!
