The final webinar of this three-part series will teach participants how to design a practical CQI plan for a DSMT program, including relevant structure, process and outcome quality measures. Ms. Hodorowicz will also show how educators followed each step of the Plan-Do-Study-Act CQI process to improve the problem of dwindling attendance in their program, and how the data was then used to fulfill their DSMT CQI project for the year.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Name the 9 quality pillars of a best practice DSMT program.
- State the 4 things required for CQI effectiveness in a DSMT program.
- State what the 4 letters (i.e., the 4 sequential steps) stand for in the evidence-based CQI model called “P-D-S-A”.

This event is open to all Quality Innovation Network-Quality Improvement Organizations (QIN-QIOs), providers, and partners. Note the target audience has been updated to include only providers and partners administering DSME as this content is not applicable by beneficiaries.
